And then nothing.Maybe your partner is trying to keep sending you virtual pleasure.And you say to yourself « It's over on his side, there's no point in continuing. Let's go back to our discussion. »However, maybe if he could give you as much pleasure as you give him, you would have reached the same level of satisfaction.Distance complicates everything.Physical contact is impossible, if I have to remind you.And even if your boyfriend does adapt and make efforts, he's still thousands of miles away from your home.You tell yourself that once the distance is gone, everything will be better.That's probably true.I believe you.But that doesn't solve the problemWhat do you do when you are very excited, but your boyfriend has his own agenda?Does he always manage to free himself to meet your sexual desires?Or if your boyfriend is not in a luxurious mood?Does distance systematically mean being sexually frustrated in your relationship?Taking care of your sexual desires is the most effective way to avoid this lack and frustration.For those who have little experience as well as for experts in the field.Because yes, sexual frustration will come naturally. Without knocking on the door. That's just the way it is. We are all human, no one escapes this rule.Just like the smoker who hasn't had his nicotine fix for a few hours. The little monster inside him will ask for his cigarette.Fortunately, there is a simple and brilliant way to fill your sexual frustration.What's that?It is to use connected objects, a vibrating egg last generation that can control your partner, no matter the hundreds or thousands of miles that separate you.I have THE reference you need for this.The one that allows your boyfriend to give you maximum pleasure simply and easily.This reference?It's the new latest generation model from Lovense: the Lush 3.The vibrating egg connected perfect to fill your sexual lovemaking at a distance. I present it to you right away in this Lush 3 Review.Imagine you and your boyfriend enjoying each other. Even though you are participating together in giving each other pleasure, it is still you and only you who are manipulating your body.Using the Lush 3 allows you to make the connection between the ideas and desires that your boyfriend imagines and the effects on you.And the human mind is limitless.The surprise effect is always present because it is no longer you who stimulates your sensitive points.You also avoid that your intimate moments are repeated and similar. The sensations are multiplied tenfold for both of you.It is hyper powerful as a gadget.Pleasure is like a gift.Giving them is just as enjoyable as receiving them.Especially when you love someone deeply. Something I have no doubt about. You wouldn't be reading this otherwise.When you're at a distance, and a sexual urge comes up, connect your device, authorize access to your partner, and bingo, your boyfriend takes care of you so you can concentrate fully on your own pleasure.Intimate sensations are multiplied tenfold.Seeing the undeniable success of the first and second model with long distance couples, and the amazing number of cam girls who used it to interact with their community live, Lovense could not stop there.In 2021, they released the Lush 3, the latest gem of its generation.Usually, when a product has several versions, it's a good sign.It means that the first ones were appreciated by a large number of users.Lush is a series of connected vibrating eggs, designed for women and especially couples in long distance relationships.If you have an internet connection, your partner can take control of this toy with his phone.He is sitting at the same table as you or on the other side of the world? Absolutely no difference!The Lush has been Lovense's bestseller for a long time.So how good is the Lush 3?Is it really even more powerful AND more discreet than its predecessors? That's what the brand promises, and that's what I'm going to check!Just like its two big brothers, the Lush 1 and Lush 2, the Lush 3 from Lovense takes the shape of a pink vibrating egg with a rigid and curved C-shaped tail.This design allows it to follow the shape of the vulva, for a better feeling of its vibrations.This vibrator exclusively intended for female pleasure is made of pink silicone, very soft is a guarantee of quality.The action is double:The sensations are powerful and controlled at the level of the vagina but also at the level of the clitoris thanks to the curvature of the tail.You will be stimulated in two places at the same time!Its dimensions are quite large compared to other models.Height: 2.94 inch / 7,5 cmWidth: 3.77 inch / 9,6 cmInsertable head: 1.5 inch / 3,7cmHere is a small image so that you realize better the dimensions:The « High » level may surprise you the first time!Do not hesitate to go gradually, especially at the beginning.To turn it on, two options:By pressing directly on the vibrating eggBy using your phoneIt can be a little difficult to insert the first few times.Don't force it and don't hesitate to use a water-based lubricant to make it easier (and definitely not a silicone or oil-based lubricant! You will greatly reduce the life of your toy).Once placed, you will hardly feel it.Since it is made of soft silicone, it is pleasant to the touch and prevents itching.Whether you are standing, sitting or lying down, there will be no problem.You may even forget about it!Whether you're using this toy when you're at a distance or when you're together, your sexual experience can quickly turn into a nightmare if it makes a monstrous noise.And that's okay. Keeping privacy and modesty is part of my values and maybe yours too.At maximum power, the egg reaches 43 dB.This corresponds to the noise of the spectators in the cinema.Here is a table summarizing the noise according to the use of the toy:Use in a public place(An outdoor location such as a street or cinema)Use in a private location(An indoor place like a bedroom)Minimum power : No noiseIntermediate power : No noiseMaximum power : No noiseOutside, there is always ambient noise. It is therefore easy to naturally cover the noise of the the eggMinimum power: No noiseIntermediate power: No noiseMaximum power: Can be heard slightly!Inside, if there is no noise, it is possible to hear it at maximum power.A television, radio or music is largely sufficient to cover the noise!If you have a priority on discretion, if you are really afraid that it will be heard around you when you use it in public for example, it is the Lush 3 that will make you feel safe and give you this guarantee.The customer reviews are unanimous:The connection is stable and overall has no bugs if the connected phone does not move too far away from the connected toy (or the signal does not weaken in the case of a long distance connection).About 13 meters when you are standing (close distance)About 9 meters when you are sitting. This is because your body will block the signal slightly, especially if you are cross-legged. (close distance)Thousands of miles away, you will need to stay connected to the internet.You'll find that the way you use the Lush 3 will change dramatically when you're at a distance or together.You can go for a walk and leave the control of the toy to your partner, play games, or make every situation more intense.Imagine yourself at a party, at the table with friends or in a public place with your partner. It could give you pleasure at any time, without anyone around being aware of it.A game that will please the most naughty LDR couples!The Lush 3 from Lovense is surprising.I didn't think it was possible to combine power and discretion at the same time. So yes, at maximum power the sound is not 100% muffled but it remains correct and quiet.Its different functions make you want to try new things all the time, which breaks the routine completely! And you know how vital it is to always surprise your partner, especially in a long distance relationship.I largely understand its fame and why it is so popular among the LDR community.In fact, the biggest downside is the price. It's a high-end vibrating egg that is not affordable for everyone.But if sexual fulfillment is vital in your life and it is one of the biggest difficulties you face in your long distance relationship, it is an excellent investment.Shipping (discretion, speed, tracking, packaging): 10 / 10The toy (comfort, feel, power, noise, ease of use) : 9 / 10The application (ergonomics, security, simple) : 8 / 10Quality / price ratio : 8 / 10The after-sales service : 7 / 10Suitable for LDR couples : 10 / 10 Overall score : 9 / 10The Lush 3 is in my opinion one of the best connected sex toys for long distance couples.The designers listen to their customers' feedback to always offer a better user experience. They managed to create a powerful, comfortable, discreet and controllable vibrating egg from anywhere in the world.There is a reason why it is now in its third version. This means that the first two models were already very popular!In short, there is a reason why so many camgirls and couples in long distance relationships use it. It is thanks to this type of product that a company surpasses its competitors, and that, Lovense has understood it well.Thank you for reading this Lush 3 Review !
